

Statements from Tim Bosma's family

Statement from Tim's wife:

My name is Sharlene Bosma and Tim is my husband. He is my partner; my best friend. He is the love of my life and the father of our child.

I would like to thank the media for taking the time today to meet with us. The last few days have been very difficult for myself and our families. This doesn't feel like real life. This sort of thing only happens on T.V.

As you know, I watched my husband drive away just after 9 o'clock Monday night. He smiled at me and said he'll be right back. I haven't seen him since. You are all aware that I saw the two men who took my husband. You have already been provided a description of these two men. I ask if you see anyone that closely matches this description to call the police. You've seen pictures of Tim and his truck. Please, please, if you see Tim or the truck, contact the police.

Over the last two days, the out pouring of support from our family, our friends, our churches, from the Hamilton community and beyond has been absolutely overwhelming. People have shared the missing person's poster all over Ontario and they continue to do so. We've had so many volunteers helping us and I can't thank them all personally, but it means so much to me that all these people-people we don't know- who would take time from their lives to help us find Tim.

Our faith in God is keeping us strong and has been getting us through the last few days. We ask the community for continued support and prayers.

My husband Tim is a loving father to our beautiful 2 year old girl and she needs her daddy back! His parents need their little boy back! All of our brothers and sisters want their brother back! We look forward to being able to put our arms around Tim and to tell him how much we love him. We hope and pray that today is the last day of this nightmare.

Tim is blonde and blue-eyed. When he gives a big smile, which he does frequently, he has dimples in his cheeks. He has a dimple in his chin, the same one our daughter has. He loves to tell jokes and if you ask his nieces and nephews, they'll tell you what a huge pest uncle Timmy is. They are all looking forward to the next water fight with Uncle Timmy. One of them has said that Uncle Timmy has been stolen, and I can't describe it better than that.

Tim's world revolves around our daughter and I know she is number one on his mind right now. I ask, I beg, I plead to whoever has my husband to please let him go. Please drop him off somewhere or make an anonymous call to the police to let them know where to find him. It was just a truck, a stupid truck. You don't need him, but I do, our daughter needs her daddy. Please, please let him come home. We need him home. May God show you mercy.

Statement from Chris Nordman, Tim's brother-in-law: As the search continues for Tim Bosma, on behalf of the family we want to say a few words.

Tim is a loving husband and a great father to a 2 year old girl. He is an amazing uncle to his nieces and nephews. He is always the first to laugh and the last to get upset.

I just want to say thank you to all of our friends and family. The support you have given to us at this time has been amazing. Words do not express the amount of support the family has received from Facebook messages, texts, emails, and phone calls. Thank you so much.

To everyone who is listening, please help us look for Tim Bosma and his truck. You will find posters like this hanging up all over. If you don't see one go to Find Tim Bosma Facebook Event page and print one off, then hang it up for us. If you see a black Dodge Ram 3500 Diesel single rear wheel axle, call the police, write down where it is and where it can be found. Write down the plate number or the VIN number which can be found on the front drivers' side dash board.

To those who have Tim Bosma, please let us know where his is. Call Crime Stoppers at 800-222-TIPS, leave a location so we can find him. You can do this anonymously.

Please help out Tim Bosma's family right now.
